

10th International Symposium of Fungal Endophytes of Grasses ISFEG 10

18-21 June 2018, Salamanca (Spain)

How to arrive to Salamanca

From Madrid's Airport by bus

If you arrive by airplane to Madrid airport, the simplest option is to take a direct bus from the airport to Salamanca. The Madrid airport bus stop is located at Terminal 1 (T1) in the car park opposite the arrivals lounge 1, and at the bus stop of Terminal 4 (T4). The bus company Avanza offers this service. The bus trip from the airport to Salamanca takes 2.5 hours.

For more information about the Madrid airport - Salamanca connection check this link:

<http://www.salamancabarajas.com/web/default.aspx?lang=en>

You can buy your tickets in advance at this website. If seats are available, you can also get a ticket on the bus.

Check the airport terminal to which you arrive in order to find the bus schedule and ticket. The cost of a one way ticket is about 27 €, and the round trip ticket costs about 48 €.

Buses leave from T1 at 13:00, 15:00, 17:00, 19:00, 21:00 and 22:00 hours, and 15 minutes later at each of those hours from T4.

From Madrid by train

You can also reach Salamanca by train from Chamartín Railway Station in Madrid (Estación de Chamartín). To go from Madrid airport to Chamartín station, you must go to the train station of Terminal 4 (T4) and take a C1 train to Chamartín (20 minutes). If you land at another terminal (i.e. T1, T2, T3) there are free buses connecting these terminals to T4.

In Chamartín station you can take a train to Salamanca. Train timetables and tickets from Madrid and other locations to Salamanca are available at this webpage, or at the station: <http://www.renfe.com/EN/viajeros/index.html>. You can also buy a ticket at Chamartín station in the counter or in a machine (Choose a 'distancia media' machine).

Note that some trains make the trip to Salamanca in 1h 45 min, and others in about 2h 45 min.

From Madrid and other cities by bus

There are buses leaving for Salamanca almost every hour from Madrid's 'Estación Sur de Autobuses'. This connection is offered by Avanza Bus Company. You can check bus schedules from Madrid, and other cities to Salamanca at this web:

<http://www.salamancabarajas.com/web/default.aspx?lang=en>

From the airport you can go to 'Estación Sur de Autobuses' taking a C1 train at Terminal 4 and getting out at the "Mendez Alvaro" station, where the bus station is located. You can also reach the bus station by Metro at the "Mendez Alvaro" station, in line 6.

The trip from Madrid bus station to Salamanca takes about 2.5 hours.

Salamanca

Salamanca is a relatively small, but lively city. Most transportation in Salamanca can be done by foot. However, if you arrive to the bus or train station and do not know the city, you may want to take a taxi to your hotel. You will find a taxi stand at the bus or train station. If not you can phone a taxi at + 34 923 250 000

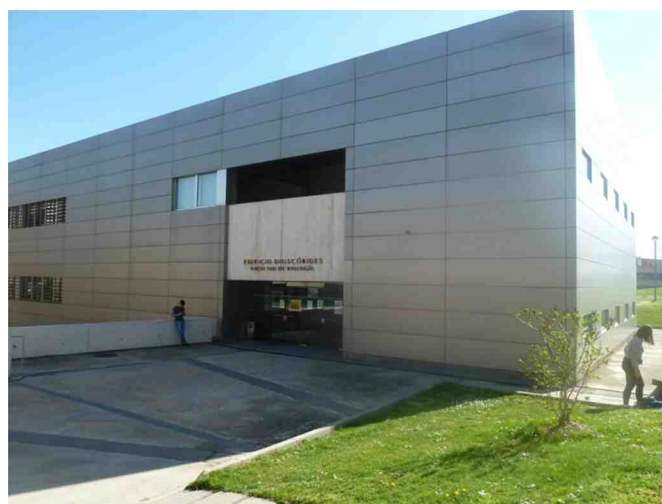

Venue

The Symposium will be held at the Auditorium of the Dioscorides Building

Avda. del Campo Charro s/n, Faculty of Biology,
Campus Miguel de Unamuno
University of Salamanca.

The auditorium is in the ground floor of the building.

Takes about 15-20 minutes to reach this building walking from the Salamanca main square (Plaza Mayor). Look at the plan at the end of the document.

Welcome wine and symposium dinner

A welcome wine will be offered to the participants at the Colegio Arzobispo Fonseca on Monday June 18 at 20:00 h. This University residence is located between the Symposium venue and the main square.

The symposium dinner will take place at the same location on Thursday June 21 at 19:30

Accommodation

Some hotels and residences have been recommended at the webpage of the congress; however, you can find other options at the Booking webpage. Try to find a hotel or residence within walking distance to the venue.

Excursion

An excursion is programmed on Wednesday 20. We are going to leave at 11:45 by bus to visit a dehesa grassland. After lunch we are going to visit Ciudad Rodrigo, a small city in the province of Salamanca. This trip is included in the inscription fee.

Accompanying persons

We are offering a fee for accompanying persons, including: three lunches at the symposium, welcome wine, symposium dinner, guided city tour and field trip (including lunch). If you are interested on it, please register as soon as possible.
